CGA NEWS

CGA Post-Doc, Junior GIS Specialist and Research Assistant Positions Open

Please see our Jobs page for descriptions of these positions:

<http://gis.harvard.edu/employment>

CityEngine for ArcGIS Available

CityEngine for ArcGIS allows for generation of high quality 3d content within ArcGIS, and can be of great use for urban designers, planners, and modelers. The CGA has purchased licenses of this product for use by Harvard affiliates. If interested in using CityEngine, please contact the CGA at:

contact@help.cga.harvard.edu

More on CityEngine: <http://www.esri.com/software/cityengine/index.html>

Census 2010 Geography Available

Census 2010 block groups, tracts, core based statistical areas, and many more geographic layers are now available at the HMDC lab at 1737 Cambridge St., for any Harvard affiliates to use. They are in the T:/Census_2010 folder, in ESRI layer package format.

June ABCD-GIS Presentation on ENVI 5

The next ABCD-GIS presentation will be on Wednesday, June 6th, from Noon - 1:30, in Room S050 of the CGIS South building at 1730 Cambridge St. The presentation will be "ENVI 5: The Next Generation of Image Analysis" by Brian Farr and Adam O'Connor, of Exelis Visual Information Solutions.
